

TODAY IN NIGERIA

The Daily News Intelligence Show & Podcast • Speaking My Mind On The News

POLITICAL LITERACY

Welcome, Chidima.

This briefing is an executive introduction to our new independent media project: Today in Nigeria (Political Literacy). It outlines what we are building, the intelligence engine running behind it, and why we want you to be the voice behind the words as our Lead Show Writer.

Focus: Nigeria & Global Diaspora

Format: 5–10 Min Daily Podcast & Video

Tone: Sharp, Conversational, Unfiltered

1. THE PROBLEM & THE VISION

Every morning, millions of Nigerians wake up inundated with news. But there is a massive problem:

The Status Quo Media:

Traditional newspapers print dry government press releases. Cable news runs 45-minute meandering panels. Social media is flooded with unchecked rumours and outrage bait.

Our Solution: Today in Nigeria:

A punchy, intelligent, daily digest that answers the only question that matters: "What actually happened today, why does it matter to your pocket, and what are the politicians not telling you?"

2. WHAT POWERS OUR NEWSROOM (NO GUESSWORK)

Most writers spend 3 to 4 hours every day just searching Google, scrolling X, and asking "what should I write about today?". You will never have to do that.

Our 24/7 Intelligence Engine: We have built an automated newsgathering desk that scans Nigeria 5 times daily (4:30 AM, 6:00 AM, 12:00 PM, 4:30 PM, 6:00 PM WAT). Before you sit down with your morning coffee, the desk has already extracted:

- Verified Tier-1 Wire: Punch, Channels TV, Daily Post, Premium Times, Vanguard, Daily Trust.
- Real-Time Street Economy Ledger: Live petrol pump prices in Lagos & Abuja, parallel FX rates, market food basket prices.
- Grassroots Radio Airwaves: Direct quotes from real citizens calling into morning shows in Lagos, Abuja, Port Harcourt, and Benin City.
- Instant TV/Radio Transcription: An on-demand pipeline that pulls word-for-word transcripts from live TV debates and radio shows on YouTube in seconds.
- Social Radar: Live trending topics on X and viral stories on Instablog9ja, BellaNaija, and YabaLeftOnline.

3. THE WRITER'S ROLE (WHAT YOU WILL ACTUALLY DO)

Your role is not technical; it is 100% creative, editorial, and journalistic. The intelligence desk gives you the facts; you give them a soul, an angle, and an unforgettable voice.

Your Daily Creative Deliverables:

- 1

The 5-Minute Morning Show Script (Host Script):
Take the 3 top stories from the 6:00 AM intelligence briefing and weave them into a lively, conversational, 600-to-800 word script for the host to record on mic and camera.
- 2

Viral Short-Form Hooks (TikTok / Shorts / Reels / X):
Write punchy 10-second opening hooks. (e.g. "If you bought a bag of rice in Mile 12 this week, you already know something isn't adding up with the official inflation numbers...").
- 3

The Editorial Angle & Big Question:
End each segment with a provocative, well-reasoned question to invite listeners to debate in the comments and join the community.

Before & After: How You Transform Raw Data into Great Audio

RAW INTELLIGENCE FROM OUR DESK

"PMS Petrol in Lagos metro selling at ₦1,020 to ₦1,060/L. Up 425% from ₦198 baseline. Mile 12 caller Beatrice reports transport fare for produce jumped from ₦3,000 to ₦7,500. Five-day losing streak on NGX market."

YOUR FINISHED SCRIPT FOR THE HOST

"Good morning Nigeria. If you pulled into a filling station in Lagos or Maitama this morning, you felt that ₦1,050 sting. But listen to what Madam Beatrice told morning radio from Mile 12 Market today: her transport bill went from ₦3,000 to ₦7,500 overnight. She says market women are literally eating into their trading capital just to sit on their stalls. While the stock market in Marina lost ₦256 billion this week, the real question is: when does the relief arrive on the street? Welcome to Today in Nigeria..."

4. REAL NEWS OUTPUT SHOWCASE (FROM OUR ACTUAL PIPELINE)

Below is a direct snapshot of the live data our automated desk gathers every morning:

A. Street Macroeconomic Ledger

| ECONOMIC INDICATOR                  | CURRENT STREET RATE     | BASELINE (MAY 2023) | CHANGE |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------|---------------------|--------|
| PMS Petrol (Lagos Metro)            | ₦1,020 – ₦1,060 / Litre | ₦198 / Litre        | +425%  |
| PMS Petrol (Abuja & Edo Corridor)   | ₦1,050 – ₦1,120 / Litre | ₦210 / Litre        | +414%  |
| Parallel Market FX (Zone 4 / Ikeja) | ₦1,670 – ₦1,710 / $1   | ₦461 / $1          | +265%  |
| 50kg Local Parboiled Rice           | ₦85,000 – ₦95,000       | ₦32,000             | +180%  |
| National Grid Generation            | ~2,400 – 2,800 MW       | ~4,000 MW           | -35%   |

B. Morning Talk Radio Pulse (Direct Citizen Quotes)

LAGOS • NIGERIA INFO 99.3 FM (MORNING CROSSFIRE)

"Produce transport from Mile 12 to Oyingbo jumped from ₦3,000 to ₦7,500. We are eating into our capital just to sit in the market."
— Caller: Madam Beatrice (Mile 12 Market)

ABUJA • HUMAN RIGHTS RADIO 101.1 FM (BREKETE FAMILY)

"Retired secondary teachers cannot afford basic blood pressure medication while the pension biometric portal stays frozen."
— Caller: Pa Solomon (Kubwa)

BENIN CITY • ITV 92.3 FM (MAN AROUND TOWN)

"Multiple ticket agents are harassing riders while the multi-billion naira flood drainage projects along Ugbowo sit unfinished."
— Caller: Osas (Ring Road Keke Operator)

C. All-Beat Trending Wire (Actual Ingestion Snapshot)

| BEAT / SOURCE                                                                                                             | HEADLINE & STORY CORE                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  National WireDaily Post      | Rivers 2027: Wike &amp; Fubara Supporters Meet in Port Harcourt: Crucial reconciliation talks as local government tension simmers in the oil corridor. |
|  EconomyNairametrics          | NGX Capital Loss: Nigerian stock exchange sheds ₦256 billion over a 5-day retreat amidst rising treasury bill yields.                                  |
|  Tech &amp; StartupsTechCabal | Glovo Appoints New Nigeria MD: Quick-commerce shakeup in Lagos as delivery competition tightens against Chowdeck.                                      |
|  Pop CultureBellaNaija      | BellaNaija at 20 Gala: High fashion coral beads and top hats light up Lagos; BBNaija Season 11 concludes with Temi Nkem's victory.                     |
|  SportsComplete Sports      | Super Eagles 3-3 Russia Thriller: Nigeria stages tactical second-half fightback in international friendly.                                             |

5. WHY YOU WILL LOVE THIS ROLE

 Pure Creative Focus

No boring administrative tasks or scouring the internet for hours. The intelligence desk handles all the heavy lifting and verification.

 High Impact & Voice

Your words and angles will be broadcast to an audience of engaged Nigerians across YouTube, Spotify, Apple Podcasts, TikTok, and X.

 Modern & Flexible Rhythm

Clear daily delivery windows (Morning script ready by 7:30 AM WAT). Work remotely with a modern, high-tech production workflow.

 A Collaborative Partnership

You won't just write scripts—you will shape the editorial voice, humor, and investigative direction of the entire brand.

Let's Build Something Meaningful Together.

Chidima, we believe your storytelling style, wit, and perspective are the missing puzzle piece for Today in Nigeria. We would love to have you on board.