National Power Grid Generation	~2,400 – 2,800 MW	~4,000 MW	-35% (Frequent collapses)

2. GRASSROOTS TALK RADIO PULSE (WHAT REAL CITIZENS ARE SAYING)

Every morning, the system captures verbatim quotes from everyday callers on Nigeria's top commercial and political talk radio hubs:

LAGOS COMMERCIAL HUB • NIGERIA INFO 99.3 FM (MORNING CROSSFIRE)

"Produce transport from Mile 12 to Oyingbo jumped from ₦3,000 to ₦7,500. We are eating into our capital just to sit in the market."

— Caller: Madam Beatrice (Mile 12 Market Trader)

ABUJA ADMINISTRATIVE HUB • HUMAN RIGHTS RADIO 101.1 FM (BREKETE FAMILY)

"Retired secondary teachers cannot afford basic blood pressure medication while the pension biometric portal stays frozen."

— Caller: Pa Solomon (Kubwa Resident)

EDO STATE CORRIDOR • ITV 92.3 FM BENIN CITY (MAN AROUND TOWN)

"Multiple ticket agents are harassing riders while the multi-billion naira flood drainage projects along Ugbowo sit unfinished."

— Caller: Osas (Ring Road Keke Operator)

RIVERS STATE OIL CORRIDOR • NIGERIA INFO 92.3 FM PORT HARCOURT (HARD FACTS)

"Our council headquarters are burning while politicians sit safely in Abuja. Let them settle their wars and let the people breathe."

— Caller: Tamuno (Marine Technician)

8. HOW DISPATCHES EVOLVE ACROSS THE DAY

Because the system runs 5 times daily, the morning briefing sets the national agenda while the evening wrap synthesises the impact and citizen reactions:

BRIEFING CYCLE	WHAT THE INTELLIGENCE DESK EXTRACTS & DELIVERS	HOW THE DAILY SHOW USES IT
04:30 – 06:00 WAT Morning Dispatch	Front-page newspaper exclusives, overnight breaking wire, morning street pump prices, and the very first citizen callers on talk radio.	Gives the host the morning talking points to record the primary 5-minute podcast episode and first-look video before 8:00 AM.
12:00 WAT Midday Pulse	Financial market trading indices, parallel market dollar rates, corporate announcements, and tech venture funding rounds.	Used for midday market stories, business community updates, and short-form video hooks on economy and tech.
16:30 – 18:00 WAT Evening Wrap-Up	Complete daily digest, TV panel showdowns, verified follow-ups on breaking stories, pop culture moments, and trending debates on ℹ️.	Feeds into the evening news wrap, YouTube community discussions, and preps tomorrow's investigation leads.

9. SUMMARY: THE POWER OF THIS INTELLIGENCE FEED

- ✅ Never Starting From Scratch

Instead of spending hours searching scattered websites and social feeds, the host and show writers receive this comprehensive, organized digest directly every morning and afternoon.

- ✅ Fact-First, Unfiltered Coverage

By pairing official news with ground-level talk radio quotes and actual street commodity rates, the show reflects what Nigerians are actually experiencing in real life.

The Daily Intelligence Engine Behind Today in Nigeria

This is what our system captures every day—not hearsay or recycled PR, but the authentic heartbeat of Nigeria. With this steady flow of verified facts, street economics, and citizen voices, our production stays fast, factual, and deeply connected to the people.
